

Penny Price Aromatherapy

Urgent Newsletter March 2008

PPA has suffered extreme Fire Damage, however,

WE ARE STILL IN BUSINESS AND OPERATING AS NORMAL.

The Penny Price premises were broken into in the early hours of Saturday 22nd March. As well as taking some office equipment and loose cash and generally wrecking the place, they also set 6 different fires in the main building.

We were really impressed with the professionalism of the Fire Service who knew exactly how to deal with stunned people in the middle of the night and ensure that we understood what had happened. The police have tried pursuing some leads, but haven't anything definite: ours was the second business premises to have suffered in this way in a week.

The significance of this happening over the Easter weekend is not lost on us – we are confident of resurrection, but it will take longer than three days for us.

Thank you for your continued custom

We really appreciate your custom and we hope that you will all continue to support us by ordering our products and booking on to courses. We need to carry on as normally as we can and feel proud that we have been able to do so.

PPA Courses

We are operating our courses as normal from smaller premises just down the road from the Academy and will offer our usual high standard of teaching. If you are booked on a course you will be taken from PPA when you arrive and walked to the temporary venue. Please park as usual on the St Peter's car park.

PPA products

As our products are located in different premises in Hinckley, these have survived and so we are able to continue to supply our products to you as before.

Open Day

We plan to have everything back to normal for the September Open Day, when you will be able to see everything restored and back to normal.
